

MEDIA RELEASE

Date: November 9, 2023

Headline:

Tourism Training Australia Announces the 2023 President's Dinner: A Night Celebrating Excellence in Skills and Education

Sydney, NSW - Tourism Training Australia is thrilled to announce the much-anticipated 2023 President's Dinner, set to take place at the luxurious Crown Sydney on December 5th. This prestigious event promises to be an evening of unparalleled elegance and a celebration of excellence in skills and education within the Tourism, Travel, Hospitality, and Events sectors.

Record Nominations Highlight Industry Dedication

After receiving a record number of nominations for the 2023 Training Awards, the selection process has proven to be a true testament to the dedication and passion of individuals and organisations in our dynamic industry. Among the highlights of this year's awards is the introduction of the "Teachers' Choice" category, which has garnered overwhelming enthusiasm from mentors and educators.

Chairman John Hart OAM Commends Industry Contributions

Chairman John Hart OAM, a leading figure in the industry, expressed his excitement about the President's Dinner and the industry's remarkable achievements:

"The President's Dinner is a momentous occasion for us all. It's a time to come together, acknowledge the dedication of our industry's champions, and inspire one another. The introduction of the 'Teachers' Choice' category reflects the commitment of educators and mentors in shaping the future workforce. We're proud to celebrate their contributions."

Special Guest: Jerome Laxale MP

One of the evening's highlights will be the presence of Jerome Laxale MP, Federal Member for Bennelong, who will represent the government at this prestigious event. Mr. Laxale's attendance underscores the significance of the President's Dinner in recognising and honouring excellence in our industry.

2023 Training Awards and the William R Galvin Memorial Scholarship

The event will feature the presentation of the 2023 Training Awards, showcasing winners across ten categories, including skills such as cookery, patisserie, front-of-house, events, and tourism. Additionally, one deserving Australian Tourism and Hospitality TAFE student will be awarded the prestigious William R Galvin Memorial Scholarship, offering invaluable support for further training both locally and internationally.

Join Us for an Unforgettable Evening

Guests are invited to immerse themselves in the glamour and luxury of the Pearl Ballroom at Crown Sydney. Dress to impress, enjoy a sumptuous meal, and celebrate alongside friends and colleagues.

Book Your Tickets Today

Now is the time to secure your seat or table for this prestigious event. Tickets are selling fast, and you won't want to miss this unforgettable evening.

For ticket inquiries and more information, please visit www.tourismtraining.com.au.

About Tourism Training Australia

Tourism Training Australia: Transforming Tourism and Hospitality Training Since 1982.

TTA is the driving force behind flexible, effective training, uniting industry leaders, government bodies, and training providers. We organise conferences, forums, and seminars to promote excellence and innovation. Our National Training Awards recognise industry leaders, and we shape training strategies.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Venessa Barnes

0413732652